

NCACES Member Survey 2020 Results

Marissa Cohen, MS
Patrice Dollar, MS, CFP
William Hamilton, MF

Survey details

What did the survey address?

- Identify our strengths and weaknesses,
- Determine how we can better communicate with our members,
- Learn what we need to do to be more relevant, and
- Discover what we can do to reach both Extension and Extension/research faculty, as well as Area Agents, and other specialists.

General information

How long have you been a member of NCACES?

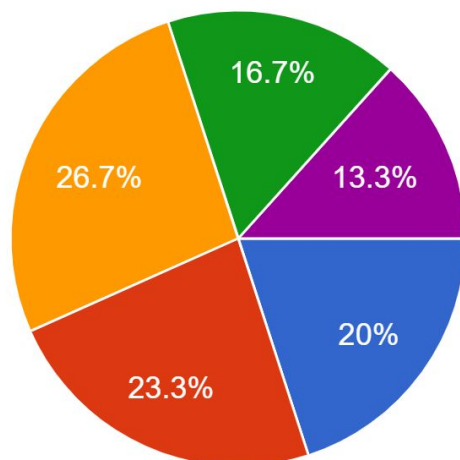

30 responses

General information

How often do you attend NCACES meetings? Use your attendance during a non-COVID-19 year to answer this question.

30 responses

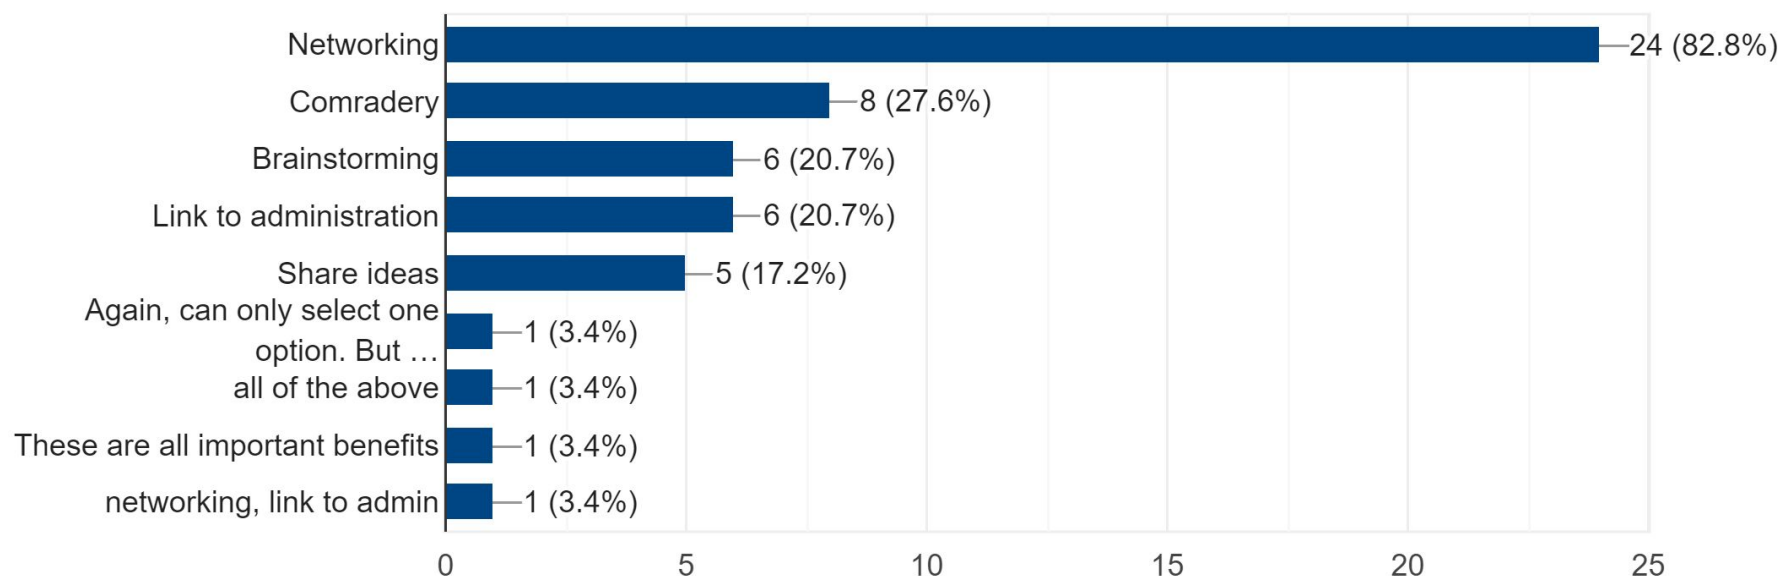

- All meetings
- Less than 2 meetings per year
- 2 or more meetings per year
- I don't attend meetings
- I am new to the organization

Strengths and weaknesses

What are the biggest strengths of NCACES?

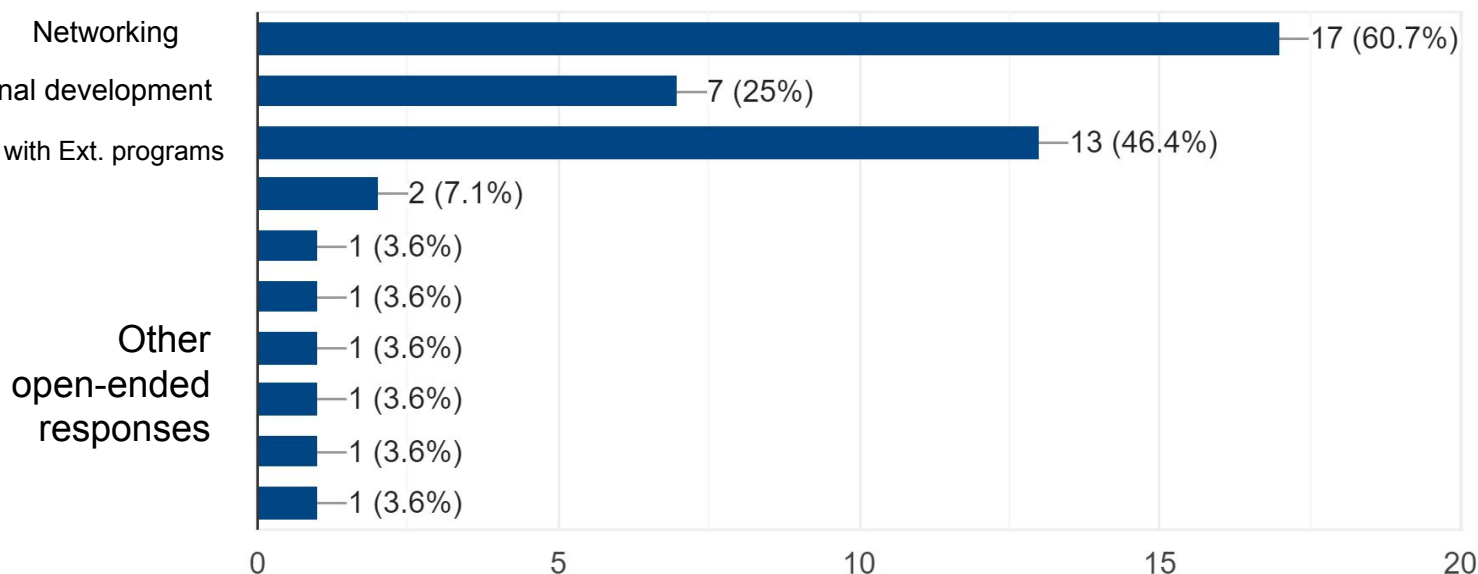

29 responses

Strengths and weaknesses

How does your membership in NCACES benefit you professionally or within your program?

28 responses

Strengths and weaknesses

What are the 3 biggest challenges you think our organization will face in the next 5 years in communicating with our clients (members)?

Relevancy

Membership

Participation

Strengths and weaknesses

When you consider the collective impact of our programs, why does the NCACES exist?

Influence

Professional development

Networking

Communication & ways to meet

If COVID-19 were not a factor, what would be your preferred way to meet?

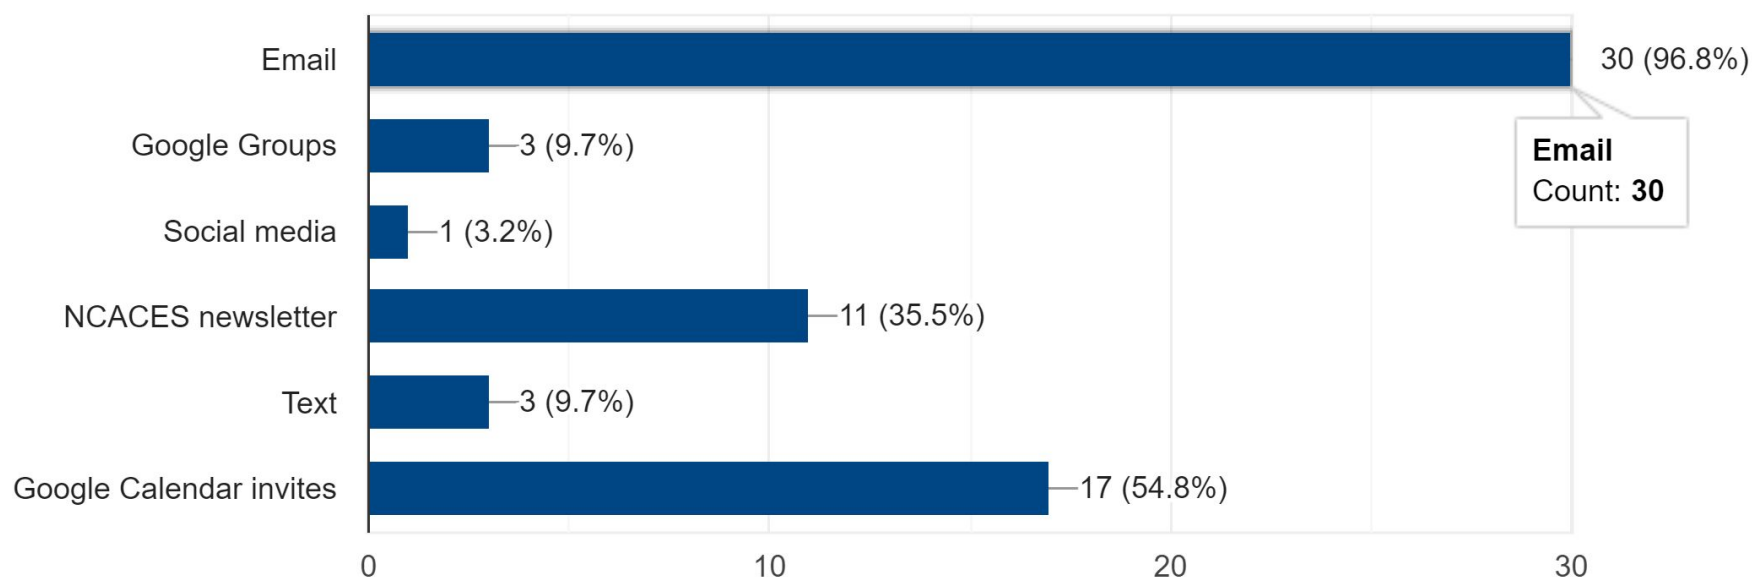

30 responses

Method of communication

What method(s) of communication do you prefer? Select all that apply

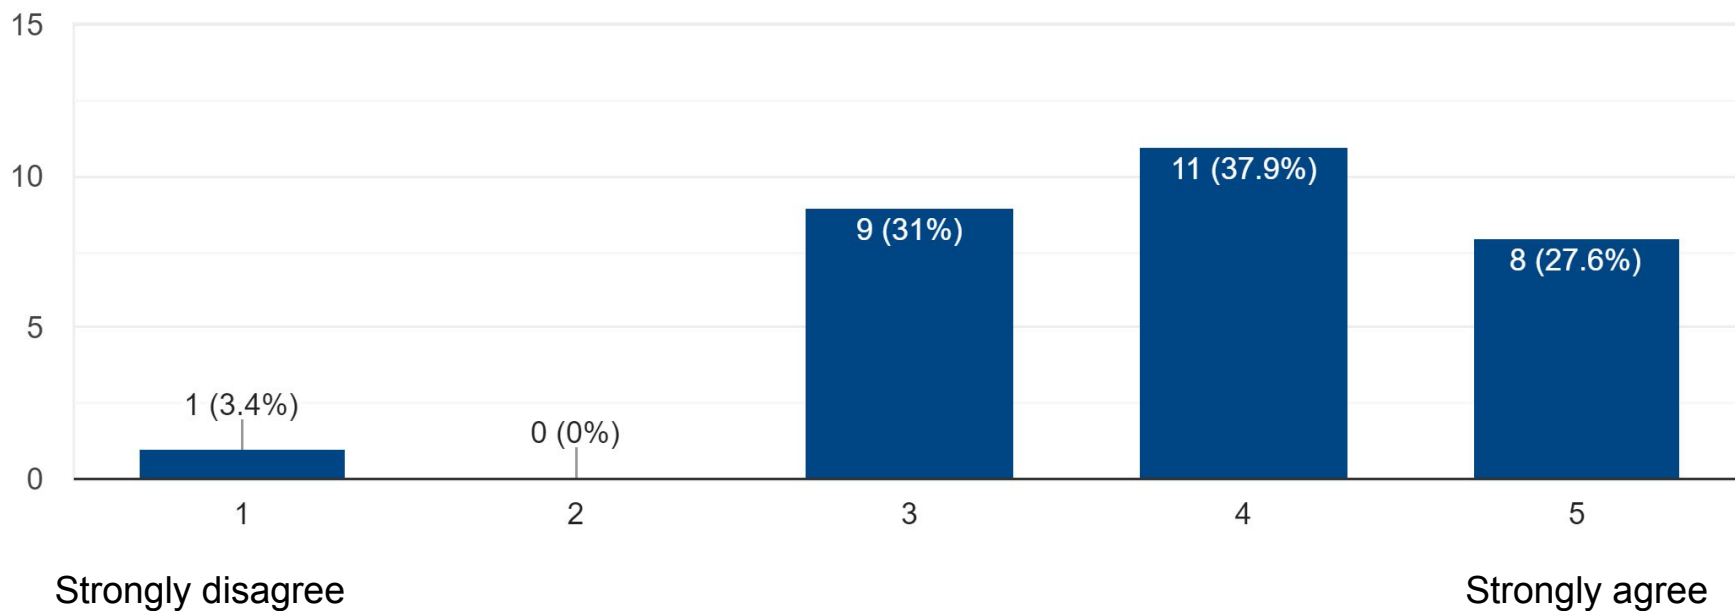

31 responses

Relevance - programming

The NCACES provides meaningful/useful programming and discussion during meetings.

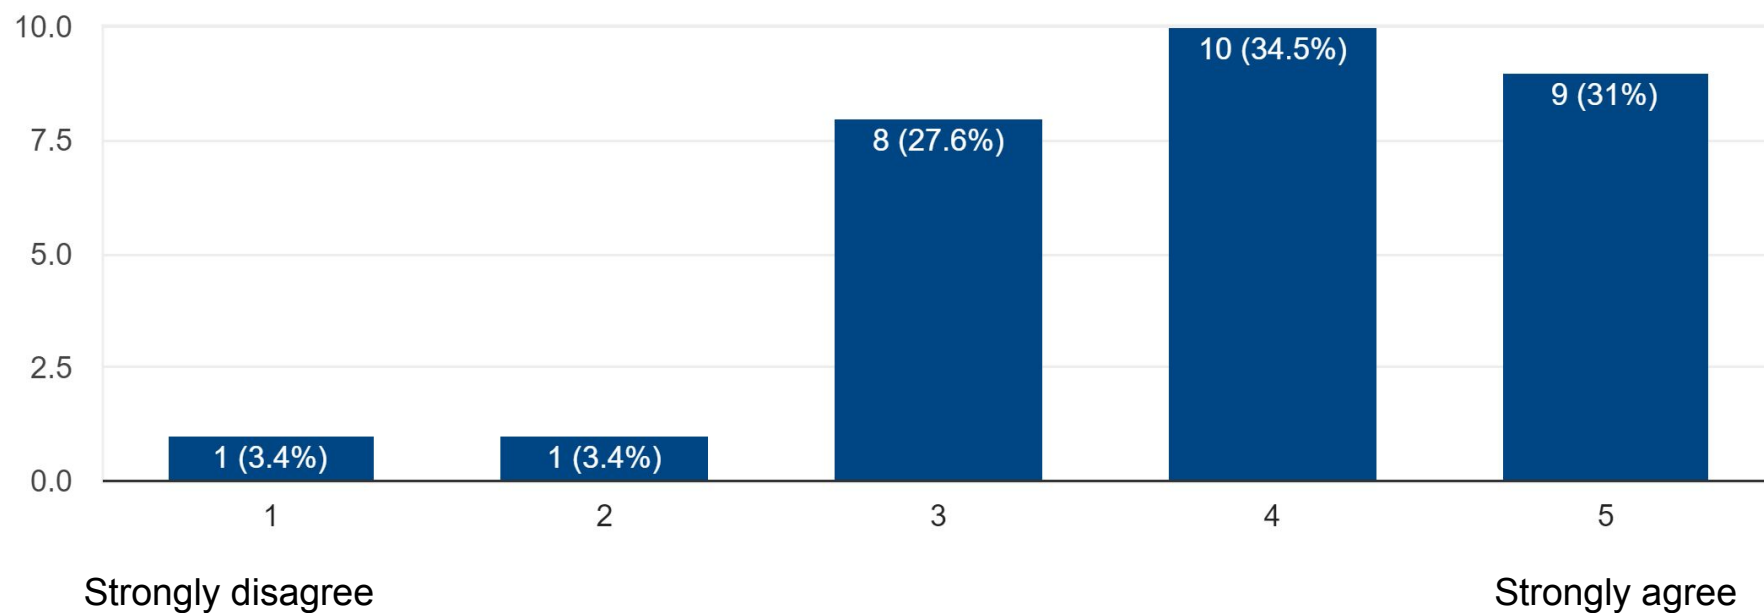

29 responses

Relevance - meeting discussion

The NCACES provides relevant discussion during meetings

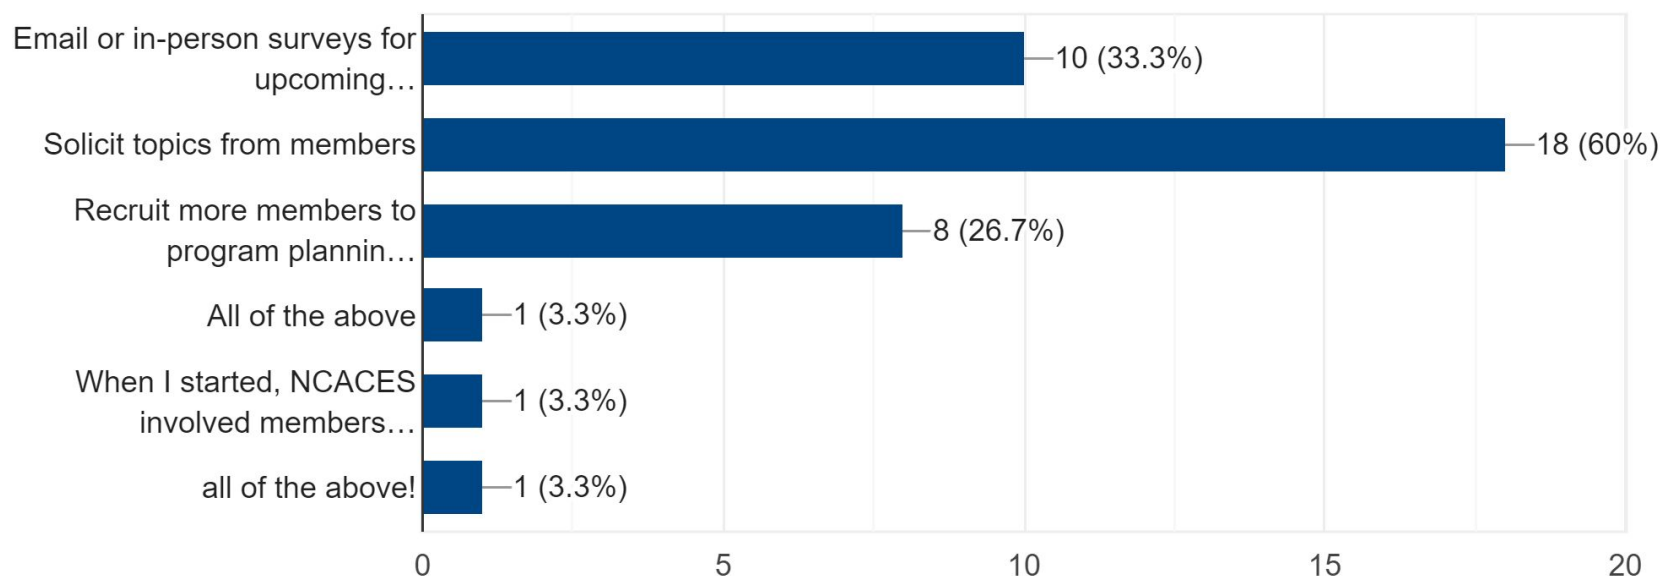

29 responses

Relevance - program topics

How can the NCACES provide more meaningful/useful programming during meetings?

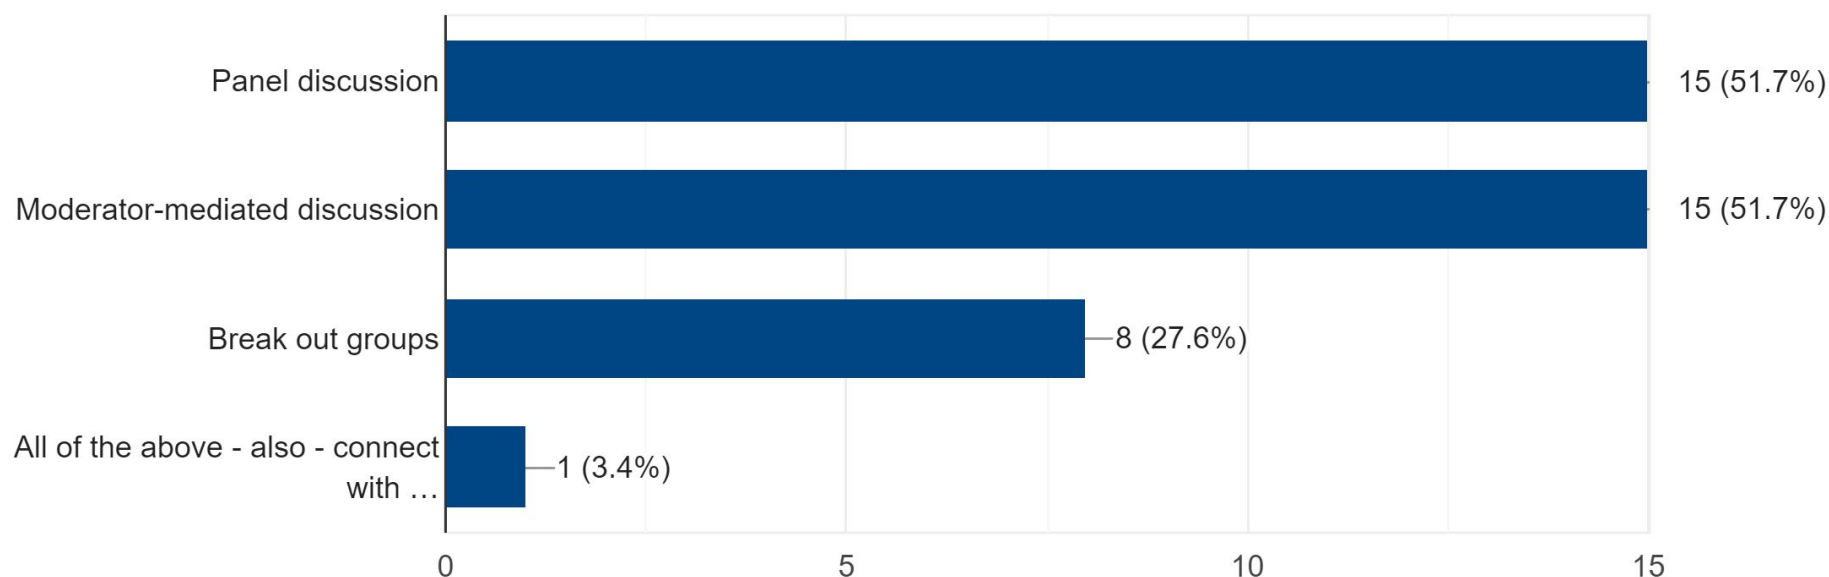

30 responses

Relevance - method of discussion

How can the NCACES provide more meaningful/useful discussion during meetings?

29 responses

Relevance - program topics

What types of programming would you like to learn more about?
What programs would be most relevant to you?

Relevance - format

What programs would be most relevant to you?

Relevance - funding

Would you be interested in learning more about funding opportunities for collaborative programs?

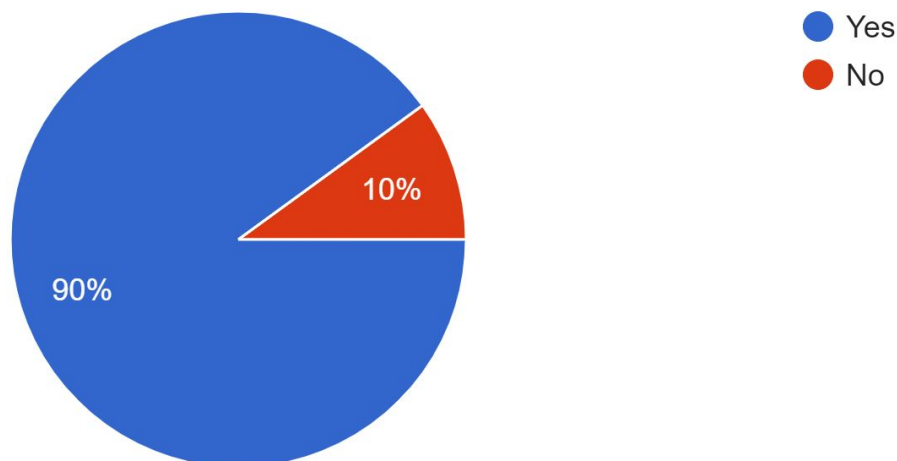

30 responses

Relevance - learn more about other programs

Are you interested in cross-training opportunities to learn more about Extension programs outside your subject matter area?

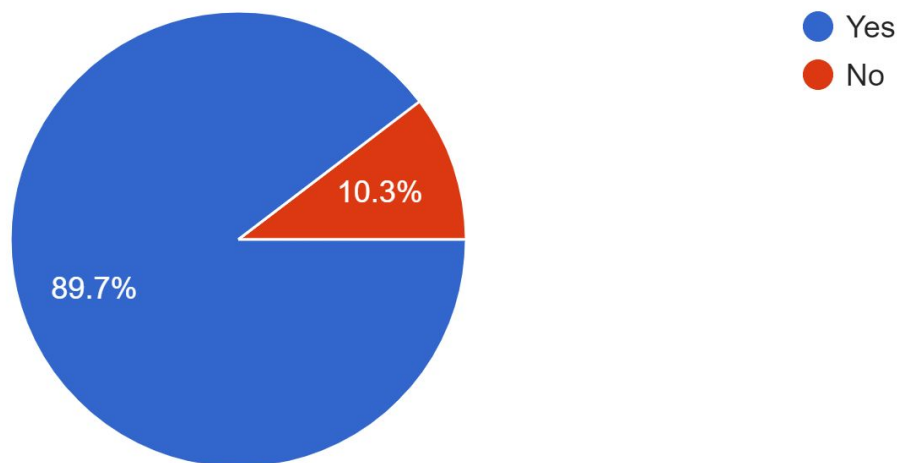

30 responses

Relevance - sharing program information with others

Would you be willing to provide NCACES with a brief presentation, PowerPoint, or video to showcase your program for other members?

29 responses

Relevance - members and institutions

What can NCACES do to become more relevant to our members and institutions? (17 responses)

Recruit

If you have not yet participated in one of our committees, why not?

22 responses

- I'm not aware of the NCACES committ...
- I didn't know I could
- I don't have enough time
- Committees are too much work

Recruit

I will recruit 1 new member per year from my network/county office, department, or research station.

27 responses

